■ CLASSIFICATION PURPOSE

To assist public and private agencies in the development of service programs for healthy and frail senior citizens and the disabled; to assess and monitor the psychological, physical and social needs of frail, at-risk clients; to negotiate, evaluate and monitor service contracts of service provider agencies; and to perform related work as required.

■ DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Aging Program Specialist is a professional social work class series found only in the Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA), Aging and Independence Services.

Aging Program Specialist I: This is the entry-level class in the Aging Program Specialist series. Under immediate supervision, incumbents are responsible for providing information, performing client screening to determine needs and appropriate program service referrals, or assisting agencies in developing, organizing and monitoring service programs.

Aging Program Specialist II: This is the journey/lead worker class in the series. Under general supervision, incumbents perform as case managers to ensure client needs are met by developing and monitoring case plans. Incumbents may act as contract managers monitoring service provider contracts for compliance with terms, conditions and regulations or act as lead workers providing technical guidance, training and information to subordinate specialists and/or clients.

Aging Program Specialist III: This is the first-line supervisory level class. Under direction, incumbents supervise the activities of a unit of Aging Program Specialists or are responsible for a program area having countywide significance.

Aging Program Specialist IV: This is the second-line supervisory class. Under direction, incumbents are responsible for supervising, through subordinate supervisors, the activities of a section of professional staff that have responsibility for a countywide program.
